

General Yuthasak Sasiprapha greeted Mr.Chamnong Bhirombhakdi (the founder of the Skeet and Trap Shooting Association of Thailand) in celebrating the Association's 45th anniversary.

On Sunday, February 19 the Skeet and Trap Shooting Association of Thailand hosted its 45th anniversary celebration presided over by Mr.Chamnong Bhirombhakdi with the VIP and committee founding members. Most importantly, Gen.Yuthasak Sasiprapa, the Deputy Prime Minister and the President of the National Olympic of Thailand, personally congratulated the Association on this occasion and joined the party with the "Chamnong Bhirombhakdi's Cup Sporting Clay" participants.

Briefly, the Skeet and Trap Shooting Association of Thailand was founded in 1967 by a group of people who loved clay shooting. They supported financially to construct the shooting ground, for the start and the Association has grown respectively since then. Currently, there are many successful clay shooters who have brought reputation and renown to the Association. (The detail history can be found in the Association's website.)
